

English-French speaker required for project to assist interns from developing countries participating in an agricultural training program in Israel.

An NGO working in the field of migration is seeking an English-French speaking representative for a project to support interns from developing countries who come to Israel for an agricultural work-study training program. The purpose of the program is to provide foreign students from developing countries with practical and theoretical training in modern agriculture.

Description:

Work is conducted mainly from home and in flexible hours, with an expected scope of up to 20 hours per month as required. Key responsibilities include:

- Responding to inquiries from program participants (online/phone)
- Operating and overseeing digital communication platforms of the program
- Preparing and translating informational materials
- Accompanying field visits
- Assisting in delivering surveys to target audiences

Qualifications:

- Fluency in English and French (oral and written)
- Knowledge of additional Southeast Asian languages - an advantage
- Ability to travel and conduct field visits throughout the country
- A service-oriented and cultural sensitive approach is essential
- Digital orientation – an advantage
- Experience working with migrants – an advantage
- The position is as external service provider. Status as exempt dealer/licensed dealer (עוסק פטור/מורשה) and the possibility of issuing invoices and payment receipts is required.

Start date as soon as possible.

For interested applicants, please email us at: cimi-jobs@cimi.org.il (as email subject please write “application for representative in the Agricultural Work-Study program”)